Thurſday, February 15. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 14.

Naples, January 21.

FEW days paſt, ſeveral Juntos or Councils of War have been held, to find out Means for putting in Execution the Orders come from Spain, relating to the Eſtabliſhment of divers Rules for the Diſcipline of the Troops, conformable in part to the Diſcipline obſerv'd by the Troops of France. The Levy of 4000 Men to be ſent over to Spain, is carried on with Succeſs, and to facilitate it the more, and render it the leſs uneaſie to the People, 'tis order'd that the Commonalty ſhall furniſh one Soldier for every hundred Fire-hearths, and ſhall ſend them hither at their own Expence: That the Collonels ſhall cloath them, and that the Royal Chamber ſhall furniſh the Horſes and Arms. A Stranger who was ſeiz'd ſome days ago in an Inn, and who pretended to be a Perſon of Quality, having a golden Key, had ſeveral Commiſſions found about him, but they were diſcover'd to be forg'd; and he proves to be a Vagabond. The famous Painter Luca Giordano died here lately, leaving unfiniſh'd ſeveral Paintings that he had begun for the King of Spain's Chappel at Madrid, which the Viceroy has caus'd to be carried to the Palace.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 20.

Naples, Jan. 27. At the Time when we were thinking here of nothing but the Diverſions of the Carnaval, and were taken up with Feaſts and Maſcarades, the Earth ſhook twice the 24th of this Month, to our great Affrightment tho' we receiv'd no Damage: But we hear ſome Houſes were thrown down in the Neighbouring Country. A Proclamation has been publiſh'd here, forbidding all Comedies and other Diverſions, even in private Houſes. Men are working to fit out the 8 Galleys of our Squadron, that they may be ready at firſt Notice to go to joyn the other Galleys of the Crown of Spain, which in all are 30 in Number; the Court of Madrid having a deſign they ſhall ſerve in Conjunction with thoſe of France.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 14.

Caſtiglione, Jan. 26. The Grand Prior of France has receiv'd Advice from Mirandola, that the 25th 100 Men of the Garriſon of Mirandola commanded by 2 Lieutenants, coming out of the Place to fetch in Wood which they wanted, were cut off by the Sieur de Barville, a Collonel, with 120 Men, among which were 40 Grenadiers. The Enemy retir'd into a Caſſine, in which they defended themſelves half an Hour; but 10 or 12 of them being kill'd, the reſt ſurrendred themſelves Priſoners of War. A Captain of the Grenadiers, who was a Voluntier on this Occaſion, was kill'd; and ſome Soldiers were wounded. The Imperialiſts are ſtill very much pent up in their Quarters, where they are in want of many things, particularly Forrage; and 'tis believ'd they cannot long ſubſiſt where they are.

The two Regiments of Hanover and Gronſelt narrowly eſcap'd being ſurpriz'd by them; thoſe Regiments retiring into Altenburg on Advice of their Approach: But Count Dieſtrichſtein, Captain of the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Gronſelt, as he was following the Regiment was attack'd and made Priſoner, and his Servant was kill'd. General Heiſter being inform'd of this Incurſion of the Malecontents, decamp'd the 4th Inſtant at Midnight; and came with his Cavalry and four Pieces of Cannon, to Kitſte, where he was joyn'd by the two Regiments of Hanover and Gronsvelt. Hereupon they attempted to maſter the ſaid Dutchmen, but were overpower'd by them; and they diſcovering to them that one of their Companions (the Dutchman aforeſaid) had put them upon the Attempt, they Notwithſtanding divers Plaiſters, &c. are publiſh'd, pretending a Cure for Corns, which are generally made to imitate that noble and effectual Plaiſter (publiſh'd by the firſt Author) which not only preſently removeth the Anguiſh thereof, but likewiſe deadneth them to the root, inſenſibly and ſafely, being diſtinguiſh'd with a Seal, having this Motto, Art finds means. To be had only of Mrs. Scampton at the Angel in Cornhill over againſt the Mermaid Tavern, at Mr. Osborn's at the Roſe and Crown under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, and at Mr. Girard's at the three Flowet-de-Luces near Northumberland-Houſe in the Strand. A Specifick Anodyne, the moſt Potent, Noble and Infallible Remedy in all old Aches, Strains, Pains or Bruiſes, too frequent of late, as well Vexatious as Tormenting, tho' let it be never ſo Sharp or Afflicting, or of what Age or Cauſe ſoever, it will not only give Eaſe (as is common at once uſing) but if continued (without Flattery) will certainly Cure, no one Medicine being known to come near it, nor would the Author be ſo poſitive of its Virtues, but by the large Encomiums it has acquir'd by many which it has perfectly cured, after the tryal of abundance of things to no purpoſe, with Time loſt and Money ſpent, reſolving at laſt to reſt contented and bear the Anguiſh with Patience, till by this, to their Joy, retriev'd to their former State of Health. It's wonderful in curing Rickets in Children, Numbneſs in the Joynts, Weakneſs in the Loynes and Back, &c. It's admirable in the Headach, Megrim, and moſt Diſtempers of the Head, by comforting the Brain, and thereby ſtrengthens the Memory.
